

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the biography page for Mark Cohen at cohenslaw.com/biography/. The page features a navigation menu with tabs for Home, Practice Areas, Biography, Philosophy, Articles, News, Speaker, FAQ's, Co-Counsel, Blog, and Contact. Below the navigation menu, there are sub-sections for Experience, Awards, Publications, Plain English, Presentations, and Licenses. The 'Publications' section is active and contains a list of articles and book reviews. A red arrow points to the 'Publications' tab in the navigation menu.

Publications

- Book Review – Writing for Dollars, Writing to Please: The Case for Plain Language in Business, Government and Law by Joseph Kimble, The Colorado Lawyer, November 2012.
- How to Draft a Bad Contract, The Colorado Lawyer, August 2015. Reprinted in Scribes Journal of Legal Writing 2016-2017.
- Book Review – Federal Trade Commission Practice and Procedure Manual, The Colorado Lawyer, December 2015.
- Plain English: The Basics, Newsletter of the Boulder County Bar Association, November 2012.
- Book Review – Preparing Witnesses: A Practical Guide for Lawyers and Their
- Firm Institute, June 11, 2020
- Avoiding Bad Contracts, Strafford Publications (Webinar), June 3, 2020
- Alter Ego Liability & Piercing the Corporate Veil, Faculty Member, Rossdale CLE, March 17, 2020
- Limitation of Liability in Commercial Contracts, Strafford Publications (Webinar), December 3, 2019
- Contractual Pitfalls of Ancillary Documents, Attachments, and Exhibits, Strafford Publications (Webinar), November 13, 2019
- Issues in Mountain Real Estate Transactions, Presentation to the Colorado Bar Association, March 21, 2019
- Risk Allocation in Commercial Contracts,